Mother's Song.

Mother sang it years ago
On the little farm,
While a tired and sleepy boy
Rested on her arm.
While a squeaky rocking chair
Creaked and groaned below,
With the rhythm of the song
Sung so soft and low.
"Suwannee River"—still it rings
In these ears of mine.
"Suwannee River"—unto me
Nothing was so fine.
Still I hear the creaking chair,
Still the shadows creep,
Even now the little song
Makes me think of sleep.
Boyhood sorrows were forgot
There on mother's breast,
"Suwannee River"—far away,
Brought me peaceful rest.
Many songs I've heard since then,
None has half the charm,
Mother sang it years ago,
Mother—on the farm.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

Camp Meeting.

JUMBO, Ky., Sept. 4.—Our meeting is in full blast with large crowds. God is hearing our prayer. Souls are being saved and there is shouting in the camp. Rev. Marlin, the evangelist, is a mighty preacher intellectually and spiritually. His sermons, I have never heard surpassed. Sister Marlin, one of the finest musicians in the land to-day, furnishes us with the sweetest gospel singing and music. Miss Lucy Lee Mahan will arrive to-day and other evangelists and helpers will be in the week. Rev. J. T. Newson is expected to preach the dedicatory sermon next Sunday at 11 A. M. Come and be with us. No one can afford to stay away from this meeting. We will try to do you good. Yours truly,
CLARENCE J. SIFFLE.

THE Crab Orchard Graded School will begin Sept. 9th and it is hoped that every pupil in the district will be present. Those from outside the district will receive a hearty welcome. Thorough instruction will characterize each department. The course of study continues from the primary grade through a good high school course, and those wishing special studies will be accommodated. The teachers have been carefully chosen, each having had successful experience in their departments. Those wishing to study music or book-keeping will find a good opportunity here. For any information address Edw. F. Davis, Supt., or R. H. Bronaugh, Sec'y.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Penny's Drug Store.

The Republicans of Mason county nominated N. H. Means, Prohibitionist, for Representative. When Thomas M. Russell attempted to nominate an old-time Republican he was declared out of order. Hal C. Curran, a Democrat, presided as chairman.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by all druggists.

A woman may be surrounded by all the luxuries that money can buy, and have the fawning friendship of people whose smiles only live in prosperity; but if she feels herself unloved and alone in her heart, the crown jewel in her diadem of happiness is lost, things lose their value and life becomes monotonous. The honest, tender love of two brave hearts who have started out, and are struggling to get a home for their little ones, and money enough to feed, clothe and educate them, makes life a thousand times more attractive and inspiring.—Exchange.

Mr. Goodloe's offense, it is said, is in announcing himself a candidate for the office to succeed Capt. Morton.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing one—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, 50c.

The foolish story that Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, has been offered $93,000 to surrender Taylor to the Kentucky authorities doesn't pass muster even in the East. The Philadelphia Record says that it happens in this case, as in nearly all stories of a similarly sensational character, that the one man who knows all about it is dead, and the suggestions of bribery are, as usual, vague. It is a great pity, the paper adds, that the story of the offered bribe goes into circulation. It would never have been sent out except as a desperate attempt to counteract Taylor's refusal to accept immunity and come to Kentucky to testify for Powers.

Sick Headache.

The following is sent from Danville to the Louisville Times: While blowing smoke into a bee hive, preparatory to removing honey, B. F. Ferrill, a farmer, sucked a lot of bees through a cylinder into his windpipe. His windpipe, throat and stomach began to swell as a result of stings. Medical assistance was immediately summoned. Dr. M. L. Pipes, the Moreland physician, reached the scene first and spent four hours removing the bees. Mr. Ferrill is unable to swallow anything, but every available drug is being used to reduce the swelling and the physicians now believe that his life will be saved.

Consternation has been aroused within the ranks of the Methodist and Baptist churches of Harrodsburg growing out of the claims of the two churches for damages done to the buildings during the Civil War, following the battle of Perryville, when the churches were occupied as hospitals and commissaries by the soldiers in caring for the dead and wounded. For several years the churches have been endeavoring to recover damages from the Government, and about a year ago the Presbyterian church received $1,100 as the amount of its claim, this church having also been used for hospital purposes during the war. A few weeks ago Dr. John B. Lillard, said to be an atheist, is alleged to have written a letter to the Department of Justice at Washington in which he claimed the churches here were attempting to defraud the Government and that their claims were illegal and unjust. In his letter Dr. Lillard asserted that the Methodist church was only occupied by the soldiers for four or five days and that no damage whatever was done to it. The meetings were not interfered with. Dr. Lillard says, and he protests against the government paying the claims.

MR. JOUETT SHOUSE, the efficient secretary of the Lexington fair, finds fault with us because we said that "the fair people there carried chips on their shoulders, getting mad at Louisville one year because she got the State fair and at Cincinnati this year because few if any of the porkopolis people were at Lexington on "Cincinnati day." Our item was inspired by an article we saw in the Courier Journal, sent from Lexington during the Blue Grass fair, and if Secretary Shouse will put himself to the trouble to read it he will find that we had grounds for saying that there was soreness because more Cincinnati people did not patronize the fair on the day set apart for them. We presume he will not deny that there were sore spots some 18 months ago when Louisville got the State Fair over Lexington. It was not our intention to do either the Blue Grass fair or Mr. Shouse an injustice. We love them too well for that.

THE growth of Oklahoma has been almost without parallel. The population of the new State has nearly doubled since the last enumeration by the United States Census Office. In 1900 the Territory of Oklahoma and Indian Territory contained 790,000 inhabitants; according to the nearly completed returns of the special census, the population at the present time approximately 1,500,000. The States of Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada combined did not contain as many inhabitants in 1900. The denial of Statehood and representation in Congress to these people on a quibble would be nothing little of a crime.

THE reason that Judge Hager read his speech at the opening of the campaign at Lexington Saturday was that there could be no distorting of it by reporters and others. The campaign committee insisted upon it and in doing so it was wise. There can be no dispute now as to what he said. The speech speaks for itself and most eloquently. It was splendidly read, and with an oratorical effect that impressed both with its earnestness and power.

THE speech of Gov. Beckham at Lexington was the clearest cut and most pointed utterance of a day full of strong sentiment. Those who had heard him read his speech in the same building last year were surprised and delighted with the eloquence of his oratory, which seemed to swell in beauty from an earnest soul. His reference to that splendid woman who gave him birth thrilled the audience and made many an eye wet with tears.

HON. J. A. SULLIVAN, of Richmond, has announced as a candidate for the Legislature. He is a leading lawyer and business man and at present is a member of the Democratic State Central Committee. Because of his fitness for the position and his connection with the State Normal School, being its local agent, he has been urged by friends regardless of political party, to consent to run. He will have no opposition.

WE are glad that Hon. W. J. Stone, of Kuttawa, has decided not to oppose Hon. Conn Linn, the democratic nominee for State Senator, but will support that gentleman instead. There is too much good in the old confederate veteran to have him go over body and soul to the enemy.

GIVING as a reason the high price of corn, whisky dealers at Cincinnati advanced the price from $1.31 to $1.32 per gallon. But the toppers will have it even at that price.

WE have not interviewed the Confederate soldiers of this county on the question but a mighty good democrat who fought gallantly under Gen. Morgan told us yesterday that he had not heard of a single "Confed" who has not heretofore "scratched" who will not vote for the splendid ticket nominated by the democrats in November last.

THE Republicans declare in convention for a non-partisan judiciary and then go and nominate a candidate against Judge John M. Lassing, who, they agree, wrote the greatest and best decision ever rendered in an election case when he set aside the election in Louisville. The Republican party seems to be nothing unless contradictory.

JUDGE ALTON B. PARKER, in an interview, says that he has no desire for the democratic nomination for president again. From the way the democrats knifed him some three years ago we opine they are not overly anxious for him to have even the nomination again.

WHAT is the matter with the Danville Advocate? We have not gotten it on time since the combination was effected. We can do without the excellent publication and it is very annoying not to get it until it is several days old.

SENATOR MCCREARY, who is in Washington on business, says the whole democratic ticket, from governor to constable, will be elected this fall, and there isn't a better posted politician in the State.

It was moved by J. A. Budder, M. Budder and seconded by Justice W. D. Wallin that the following action be taken by this court:

The grand jury of Lincoln county at its February term, 1907, recommended a new court house for Lincoln county, and it appearing to the satisfaction of this court that the court house now in use was inadequate and equate for the public convenience and preservation of the Public Records, it is ordered and adjudged that the sum of thirty thousand dollars be suggested as the sum necessary to build a new court house, and it is further ordered that an election be held and a poll opened at the several voting precincts in Lincoln County on Tuesday November 5, 1907, the day of the next general election, at which the appropriation above suggested shall be submitted to the legal voters of Lincoln county for their approval or rejection.

THE MARRIED MAN.

When a man marries,
Trouble begins;
Buttoning waists,
And putting in pins.
Looking at bonnets,
To see if they're straight;
Ready to start,
Then having to wait,
Hunting for robbers,
Under each bed;
Roused in the night,
For a blanket to spread,
When the rain comes,
Though you're wrapped in repose,
Roused with a shout,
All the windows to close.
Summoned at morn,
To start up the fire;
Get in the milk,
In your scanty attire.
Run to the store,
For the food you would eat;
Get in the ice,
Ere it melts in the street.
Hurry to work,
Hurry back with your pay—
When a man marries,
So passes the day.—Detroit Free Press.
